

Situated in the heart of the region known as QUERCY, 10 minutes from the medieval town of CAHORS, DOMAINE DE LABARTHE has been welcoming guests for almost twenty five years.

At the entrance to the village of Espère, this 18th century country seat, surrounded by walnut trees, remains a family home. Over the years it has been restored with loving respect for tradition and in keeping with its ancient stone character. Today it is a residence of quality in a unique setting.

There are four south-facing bedrooms which look out onto the main gardens and the swimming pool. They are very comfortable and beautifully decorated, with the addition of a bouquet of roses to welcome you, in season.

A large sitting-room is at your disposal with two windows opening onto the gardens inviting you to relax with its imposing fireplace, well-stocked bookshelves and television.

In summer, breakfast is served at individual tables on the terrace, overlooking the hundred year old olive trees.

For a longer stay there is the « Pigeonnier », a charming two storey building, independent of the main house and with two rooms and kitchen area, it is suitable for 2 to 3 people as a gite.

The woodland and the Baroque and rose gardens provide a restful setting for those seeking peace and quiet.

For meals outdoors there is a fully equipped outside kitchen and gas barbecue at the disposal of our guests. The garden tables, nestling under the shade of the trees, are also available for guests who may help themselves to vegetables and fruit from the kitchen garden.

On certain evenings you can book a meal in the Guesthouse. Here dinner is served in a peaceful setting in front of the fireplace or watching the setting sun on the terrace. The Lady of the House offers a traditional, family meal accompanied by excellent wine from "Château de Cayx", the nearby vineyard owned by their majesties the Queen and Prince of Denmark

The warm welcome from the owners and the exceptional setting of DOMAINE DE LABARTHE, makes this ancient residence an excellent choice for your stay, situated as it is on the Cahors wine trail and within the best known tourist sites of the Lot.
